Dedication

As the Class of 2003, we are honored to dedicate this year book to
Mr. Frederic Remington.

He has been a mentor and confidante to many. His long career and dedication to teaching have inspired and helped people in numerous ways. He has prepared us well for our future. Underneath his intimidating exterior lies a compassionate man. We would like to thank Mr. Remington for standing by us for the past three years.

Mr. Remington has provided West Rutland students with an excellent teacher for many years. His great teacher-student skills are widely known throughout the area.

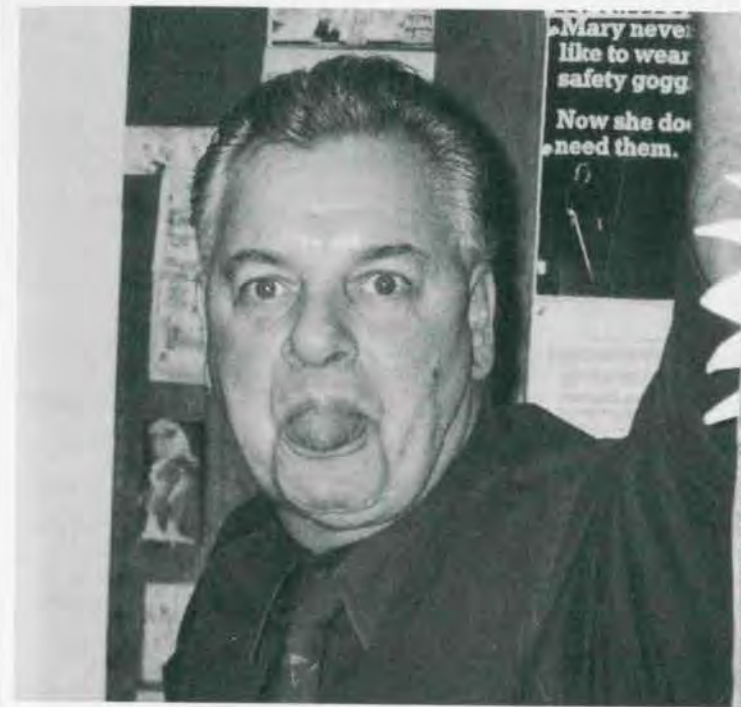

Next year a new history teacher will be in the classroom, but Mr. Remington's students will not forget the important lessons on life and history he taught them.

Thank you Mr. Remington and good luck in the future.

Class of 2003

This yearbook was digitized by volunteers from the

Class Advisors

We have had Mr. Loomis since middle school. We have grown immensely together. He has been our advisor for the past four years and has helped us significantly.

From all of the crazy class meetings to all of the frustrating fundraisers he has stood by our side and helped us through it. If we ever needed someone to talk to we knew that we could confide in him.

Thank you for all of your help.
We will never forget you!

Class of 2003

We were Mr. Hammond's first class at West Rutland! We knew that the English department was in for a change for the better. He introduced new methods of teaching at West Rutland that many of the students found exciting and easy to learn from.

As our class advisor he has provided us guidance and confidence. Mr. Hammond has shown us many paths in life we may choose to follow. We hope that many other classes will have and appreciate this privilege.

Thank you for all of your time and effort!

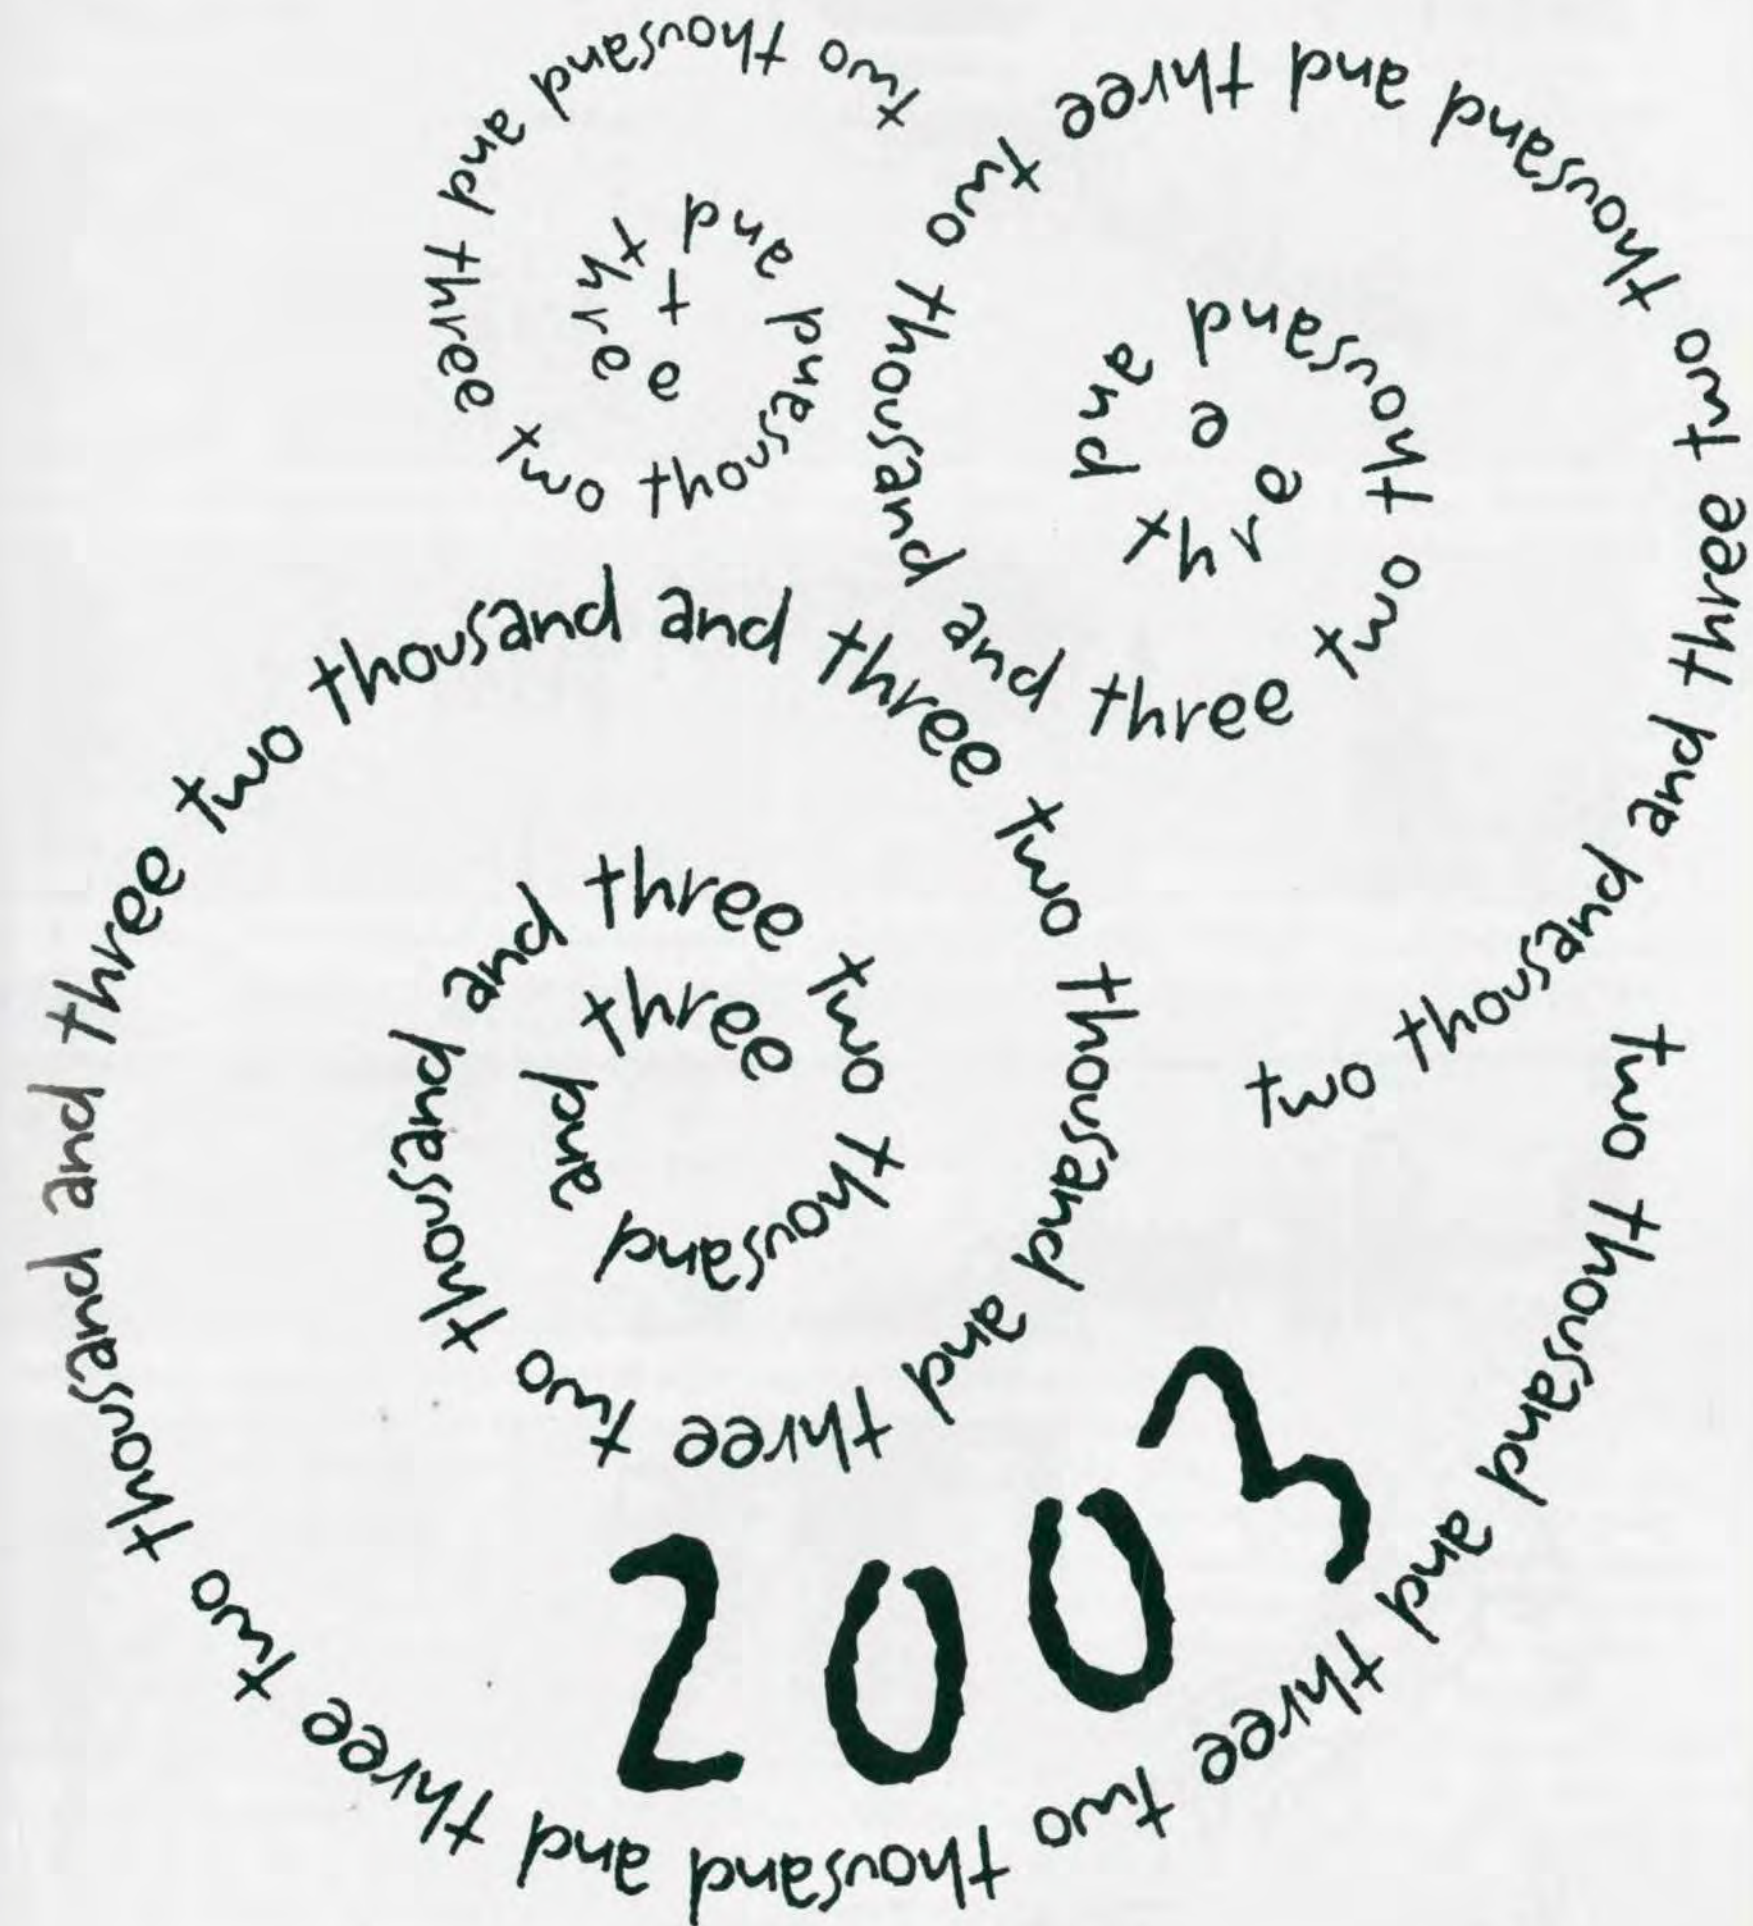

Each of Us Must Climb Our Separate Mountain

*Each of us must climb our separate mountain
To reach at last our own extended view.
We can be no more than what we are,
Yet that is quite enough for us to do.
The world is far too great for comprehension,
And so we only know what we can know.
But given the abilities we're given,
That's still a long and weary way to go.
Yet on the way, how beautiful the moments!
How good it feels to have some skill or art!
How wonderful to pause in awestruck wonder
At what must fill the unsuspecting heart!
And so we're proud of each of you today
For all you've learned, and all you've tried to learn.
Knowledge brings the deepest satisfaction,
Not least because it's something that you earn.*

Class Prophecy

The senior class of 2003 has finally reached the 10 year reunion of their graduation from West Rutland High School. Jen Czachor pulls up after a long drive from Boston where she has become a successful stockbroker. Amanda Davis is just finishing the decorations for the event when Jen arrives. Amanda moved down to Boston where she opened her own business as an interior designer. Her and Jen are making plans for the following week when Kim Pierce asks if they want any hors d'ouvres. Kim owns her own hotel and restaurant in Boston and has been chosen to prepare the food for the reunion. Next Andy Lee arrives in his newest model car. Andy developed a new make of a car called the Lanivia and has become a multibillionaire. As a result of his success he decided to provide everyone attending the reunion with their choice of one of his cars. Andy flew over from Paris to Miami to pick up Kyle Csizmesia where he resides. Kyle has become a psychologist and works with teenagers from the projects. Next to arrive is Jessica Blanchard and Ashley Sherrer. Jessica has driven up from DC where she works at George Washington University Medical Center as the head surgical nurse. She picked up Ashley from Connecticut where she teaches physical education for high school. In the parking lot Jessica and Ashley meet up with Steve Bowen and Dana Wilson. Steve is tired after a long flight from Amsterdam where he has become a CEO of a multimillion dollar corporation. He flew in from NYC where Dana picked him up from the airport. Dana found it difficult to take time away from his busy comedy club he owns in NYC. As the four enter the building they see Brendan Burns, Eric Trepanier, and Laura Webster. The threesome has just arrived from Hawaii where they have opened a successful sports bar called Margaritaville. They begin to discuss new drink ideas when Jake Duprey and Andy Sheloski arrive. Jake has become a body builder on Venice Beach and has appeared several times on ESPN. Nick Kulig enters the room next giggling to himself. Nick has taken the place of Mr. Remington as the history teacher at West Rutland High School. Nick is taken off guard as Jake decides to demonstrate his ability to throw a human twenty feet into the air. Next enter the class twins, Jeremy and Justin Brown. The two brothers were never close in high school, but now they are living together in California. Jeremy has become a very successful engineer of the most popular corporations in the west. Justin has also achieved great success as a biomedical engineer after discovering how to prevent the production of twins. Next to arrive are Ashley Wetherby and Erica O'Bara. Ashley is chatting with her long time friend, Erica, about her new class of elementary students. Ashley teaches in Florida, but she flew up to Maine to spend a few weeks with Erica. However, Erica has been very busy with a new case at the law firm where she works as a secretary. Next pull up Mike Converse and James Manning. Mike works as an electrical engineer in NYC and has provided useful services to many people in that area. James has become a business tycoon and works in Atlanta. As Mike and James are getting out of one Andy's best designed cars, they see Ashley Pease, Ashlynn Stocker, and Nicole Velde pull up. They are all stylishly dressed as they enter the parking lot. Ashley has become a pediatric nurse in LA where she sees many celebrities. Ashlynn also works with children as a child psychologist in NYC. Following a similar career, Nicole became a social worker in California with Ashley. Nathan O'Bara is next to show up. He has become a successful mechanic in New Jersey where he is Andy Lee's personal assistant. Last to show up are Shannon Rajda and Jason Lincoln. Shannon is running late because she was seeing a patient at the hospital in NYC where she is a radiologist. She rode with Jason who has become a professional golfer in upstate New York. The entire class has finally arrived and is catching up on the past 10 years. Everyone sits down to dine on Kim's well prepared meal. They all realize how much everyone has changed, yet they will never forget how much they learned and grew with their friends in Westside.

To my parents, who have given me so much that I believe I will never be able to repay them for what they have given me, I love you.

and many other outside activities I've learned to become a very patient person, when I need to be, and learned how to self-reflect and how to change my self for the better; even though it exposes me to outside opinions and ideas which can be painful. I've learned that inner growth (mental growth), unlike physical growth can be very painful. I've gained many true friends in high school and I am still gaining new friends every day just being myself. I've earned many academic awards, thanks to the pressure to succeed from my parents, and they will help me in the future but mental accomplishments will keep me going in life. They mean much more to me than a little piece of paper saying I won.

Memorable Moments: Meeting my soul mate and extremely close & important friend Jen, on-line & keeping her as a friend to this day. I.L.Y.J.E.P. Not a day goes by...hehe. Family Values Tour 2001 w/L.W., J.M., & D.W. 4th of July w/N.K, J.M, M.C., J.B. My growth period which I have learned much from & still tend to revisit. The chance to see Korn when I saw the "No Name Tour" w/Korn, Puddle of Mudd, & Dead$y. I also saw D.M.B. July & will see them again in Dec. & I can't wait!! They're awesome! Meeting my close friend Stacey also means a great deal to me, L.Y.S. My entire high school career & extracurricular events during those years are all memorable moments.

Likes: Music most definitely! Music & my friends are the two things that are my most liked in my life. I also enjoy football & golf a lot!! Driving in my car & just relaxing to some good music (my music).

Dislikes: People who believe they're always right & not open to others opinions. Stuck up people who never give you a chance. Being yelled at for something I didn't do.

Found With: Anyone who will be willing to be seen in public with me, which is actually a select group of people I call my friends.

Future Plans: To attend CSC & major in the area of forensics.

Will: I will to my sister, the ability to cope with any problem that crosses her path and to never give up. Keep your chin up, Ker! I will to my brother the ability to keep being himself and not to give in to petty criticism. I will to my friend Stacey the ability to make the right decisions in her life. To my friend Jen the ability to have a smile on her face more than she does. Also I will to my class the ability to succeed in life at what they enjoy!

Class of 2003

Right: Our class trip to Washington, DC was quite the experience. Remember the girls getting caught in the guy's room! When people slept out on the balconies (or just climbed on them).

Above: Ashley, Jess, Kim, Shannon, and Jen are making friends with a werewolf at the Pittsford Haunted House. They still continue this tradition of visiting the Haunted House every year with a smile on their faces and ready to scream.

Most of our class has been together since kindergarten and we have all grown up with each other. We will all miss each other after we graduate. But we just have to remember when... and never forget!

Remember When...

Below: Amanda and Laura were having fun at the Great Escape!

Below: Jessica and Ashley pose before a dance recital. They loved to dance and perform even when they were little.

Below: The class is tired from walking around and is just relaxing during our 8th grade class trip to Washington, DC.

Right: Andy gets all dressed up for Winter Carnival. Never thought we'd see him dressed like this. Isn't he cute?

And Never Forget!

Left: Jason, Kim, and Jake have always been good friends. They are just hanging out during our trip to DC.

Right: Even at a young age, Steve was always a ladies man and Kim loved to flirt with all the guys.

Below: Kyle was always ready to work with a smile on his face and his FUBU apparel.

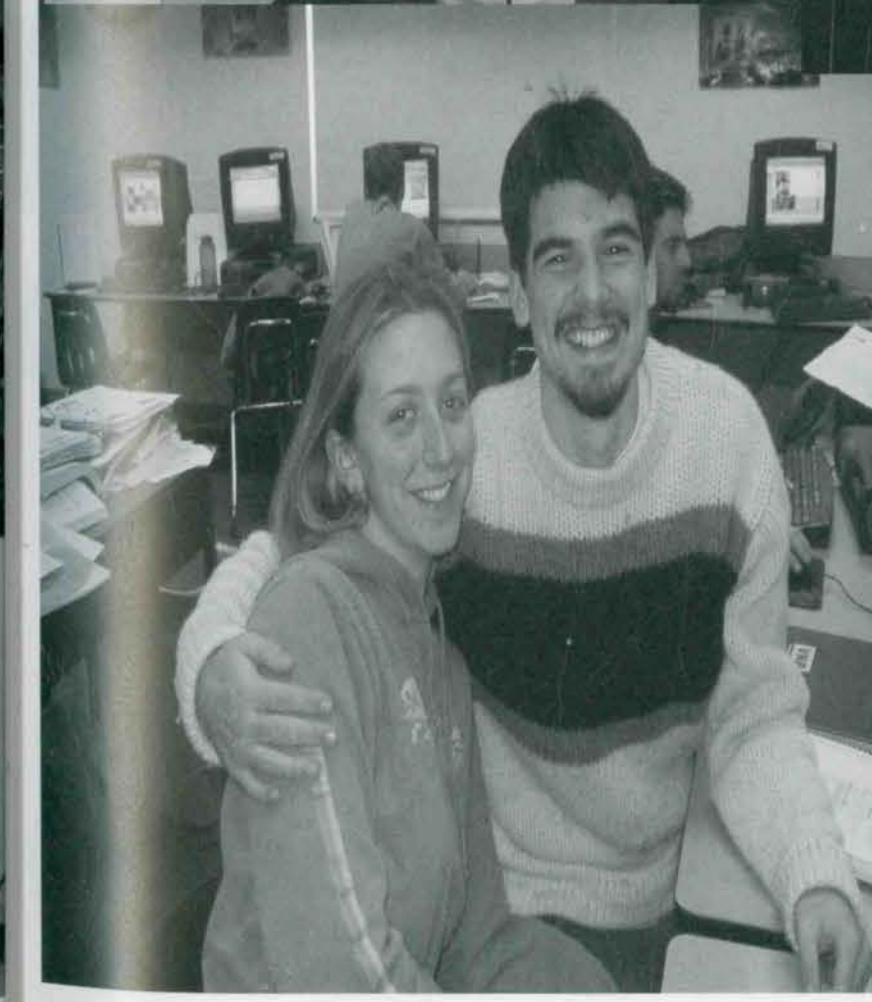

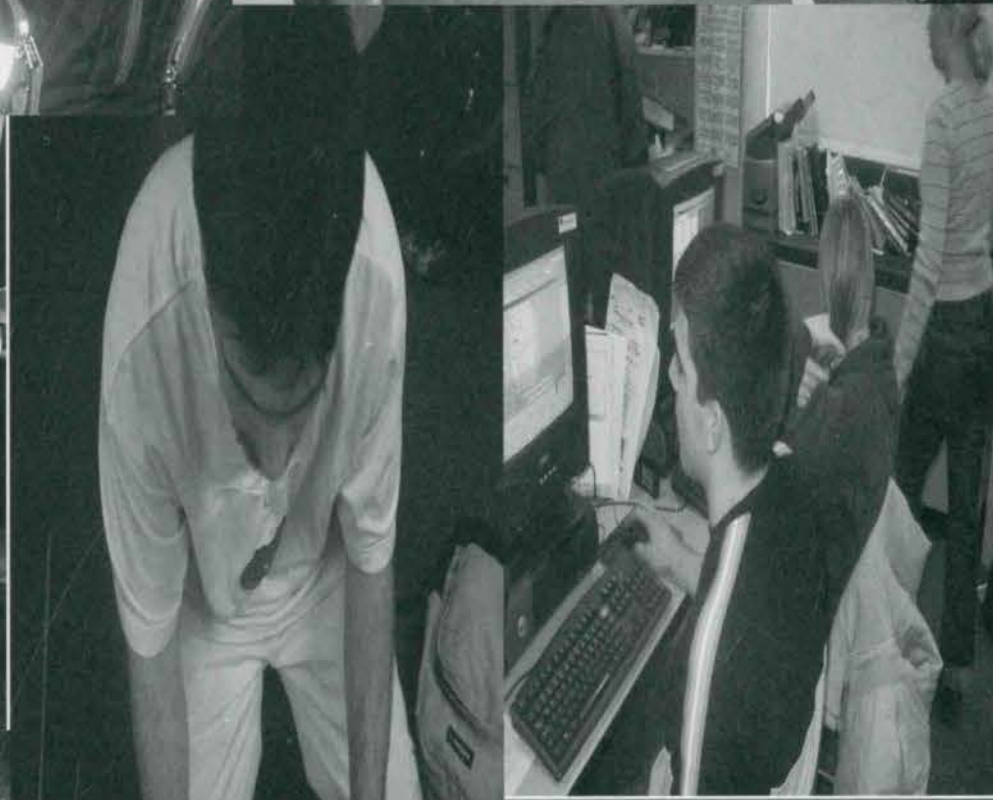

During Winter Carnival Eric always loved to get all dressed up.

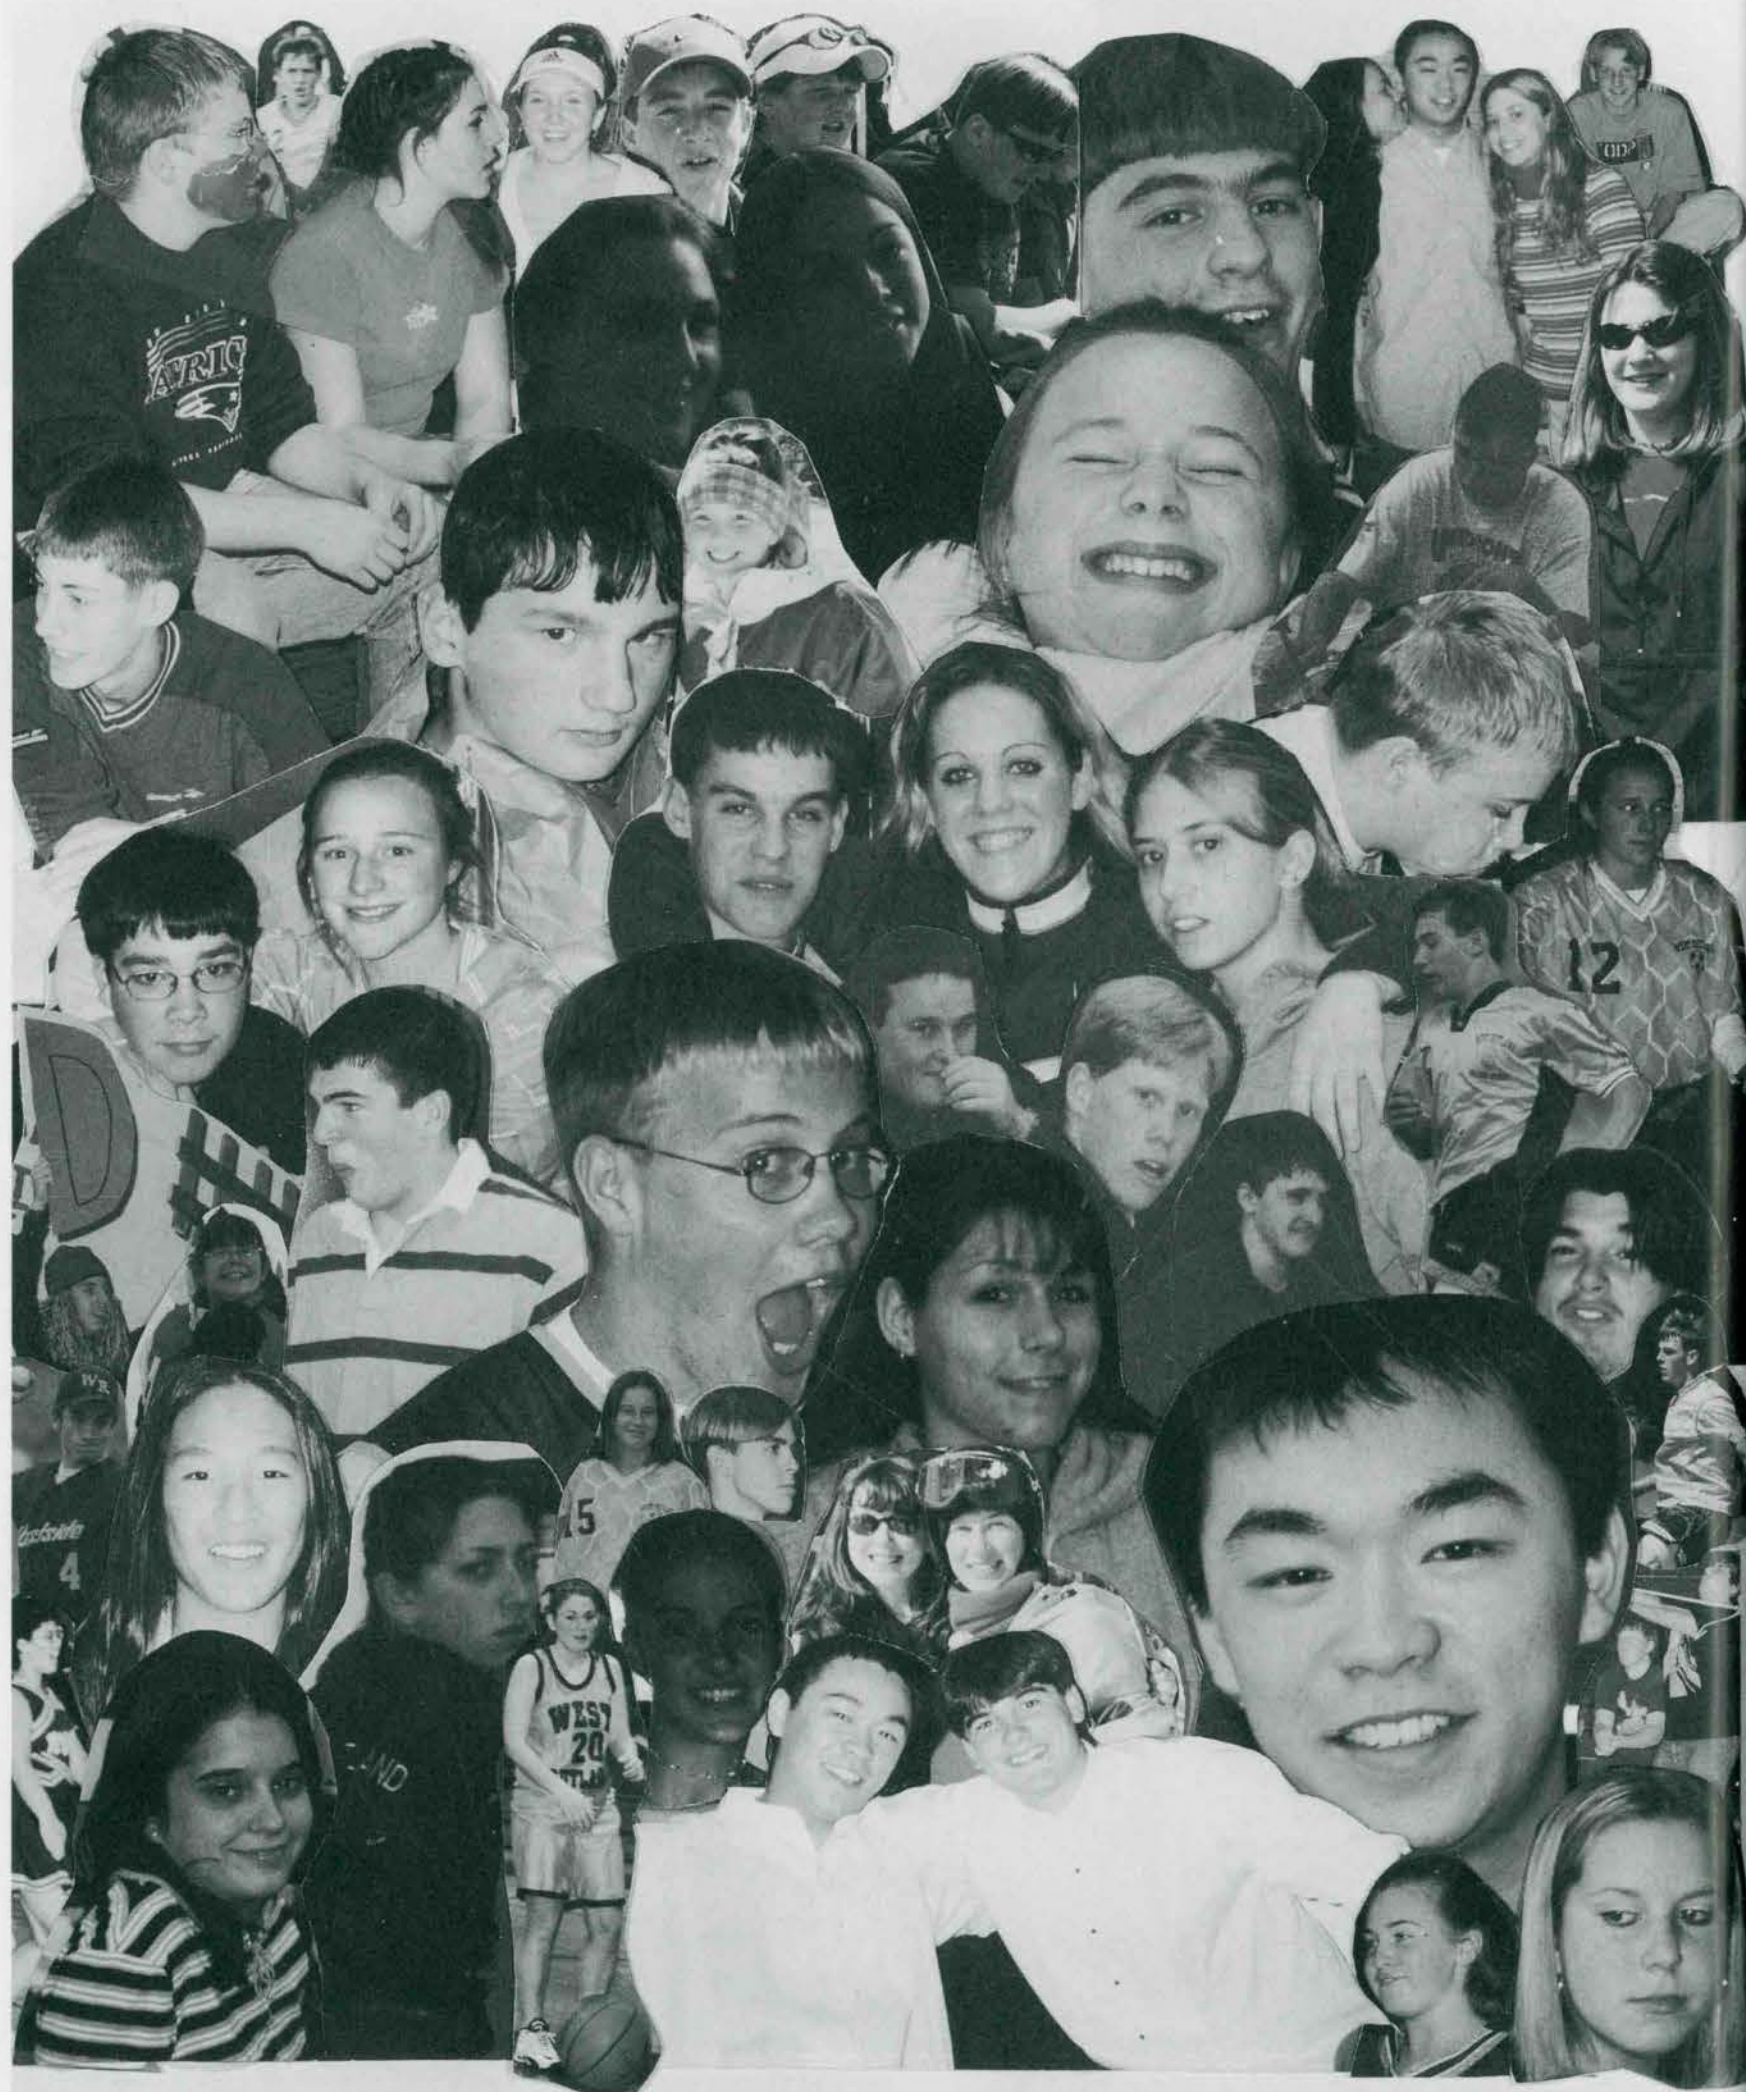

Look at Ashley and Laura when they were little, weren't they cute!

Above: The guys get dressed up as girls to play the "Pink Ladies" during Winter Carnival our freshmen year. We always seem to get them to dress up as girls... but then again maybe they like it!

Junior Jeff Vos makes a hustle play. Jeff showed us size didn't matter and completed a successful season. He will be a tremendous asset to next years team.

Many disgusted faces after a terrible half of soccer. Mr. Maxham was reminding us of our mistakes throughout the half. We had many games that started rough but we usually ended up in victory. Our team always gave Mr. Maxham our undivided attention because of his knowledge of the game. We would like to specially thank him for a job well done and good luck in the future.

Junior Mike Senecal shows his skill beating this defender easily. Mike's diversity helped us tremendously playing fullback along with halfback

Senior Kyle Czismesia shows determination to win the soccer game after a tiring half. Kyle played right fullback with authority and left many opponents on the ground.

Senior Andy Lee runs with a defender to obtain the ball. He helped the team with many great corner kicks and key plays.

Senior captain Eric Trepanier goes up for a header to put one in the back of the net. He also finished the season with 15 goals and was selected as an all-state member.

Junior captain Don Dunchus struts after making an incredible defensive stop. Don was a brick wall starting as the center fullback.

West Rutland shows its great sportsmanship after a good victory over Winooski.

The Boys Varsity ended up with a very successful season with 13 wins and 3 losses. Many thought this would be a championship team, sadly they lost in the quarterfinals. Sharon Academy defeated them 3 to 2.

Junior captain Marc Poljacik takes a goal kick against our rivals. Marc is an exceptional goalie that came up with some unbelievable saves.

Boys Varsity

The two varsity coaches having an exciting time at the bonfire. The girls also had a successful season making it to the semi-finals. Combined our record was 26 wins and 7 losses.

Although Matt Corey did not see a lot of playing time he worked just as hard as the rest of the team. He shows a lot of heart and dedication.

Sophomore Justin O'Rourke shows his good control during warm-ups. Justin ended the season with 8 goals but has two years ahead of him to help Westside.

Eric and Matt show disappointment on their faces after playing a horrible half. Excellent coaching made all of us want to play our best.

Jen will be greatly missed next year. She used her power to boot the ball into scoring position for the Horde, and scored well over ten goals her senior year.

Laura came out to play soccer her last year as a senior. Her speed and aggressiveness was a great addition to the team and will be missed next year.

Ashley played a hard defense, making it impossible for an offense to get by her. She was an asset to the Horde's defense and will be hard to replace.

As a manager, Jeremy fulfilled all the teams needs above and beyond necessary. Westside will not be the same with out his hard work.

This year the girl's soccer team showed a great improvement. They ended the season with a new record, and hopefully teams to come will continue the improvement. The girls made it to the semi-finals, but were unfortunately defeated by Chelsea. Westside worked hard throughout the season and should be proud of themselves for doing so well. The small team faced many obstacles (mainly due to the injuries key players faced) and many people doubted that the girls would do as well as they did. The Westside girls surprised everyone with their ability and heart.

Above: The Westside girls pose for a group picture after their quarter final win against Williamstown. The game lasted just under 3 hours and Westside played hard the whole time, never giving up or letting down the intensity. The girls ended up going 13-4, one of the best records Westside has seen in years.

Melissa was a key player in the Lady Horde's soccer team this year. She showed a strong ability to clear the ball and stop offensive players from getting near the goal. She'll be a great player in the years to come.

Brianna showed nothing but good things to the team this year. Her speed and dribbling skills were essential to Westside scoring. Here she is seen dribbling through many players on her way to score another goal.

Megan L could be placed any where on the field and get her job done. She played both offense and defense for Westside and as you can see here, she was always the first one to run after the ball.

Back Row: Coach Heather House, Megan Laliberte, Alicia Czarnecki, Heather Stocker, Laura Webster, Ashley Coolidge, Sarah Bowen, Rina Girardi, Mgr. Jeremy Brown

Above: Jeremy, Jen, Ashley, and Laura (this year's seniors) have their picture taken after their last home game against Poultney. The game was a victory. The girls beat the Devils.

The senior's leadership will be missed next year, but it is certain that Meg P. and Megan L. will fill their shoes without any problems. Good Luck Girls!

Megan continues to excell in the goal every year. Westside relies on her skills and she always pulls through for her team.

Ali was a extremely strong player for the team this year. She can run up and down the field extremely fast, and also was a great corner kicker.

Both the girl's and the boy's teams supported each other all season long. Above you can see the Westside girls supporting their boys and sporting their WR warm ups.

Once again the support of the boys for their girls is shown. Here the boys run out to congratulate the girls in their quarter-final victory.

Middle row: Micheal Senecal, Eric Trepanier, Andy Lee, Don Dunchus Manager Jeremy Brown
Bottom row: Matt Serrani, Jason Lincoln, Kyle Csizmesia, Steve Bowen, Marc Poljacik

Senior Starters

The seniors are going to be greatly missed next season, but enjoyed every moment of this season and cherished every moment there was.

The team has last minute preparations before the tip off.

Andy Lee takes the ball in for a strong two points laying it up over the defenders.

Jason Lincoln sinks his first of two free throws giving West Rutland more of a lead.

Kyle Csizmesia heads out for the opening tip.

Tip Off!

The Golden Horde dominated its opponents by strong defense and a fast break style of offense. They wore the opponents down through out the game and then would deliver the last blow to win the game. This method was very effective for the Hordeman.

Kyle Csizmesia goes by the defense taking it to the hoop strong.

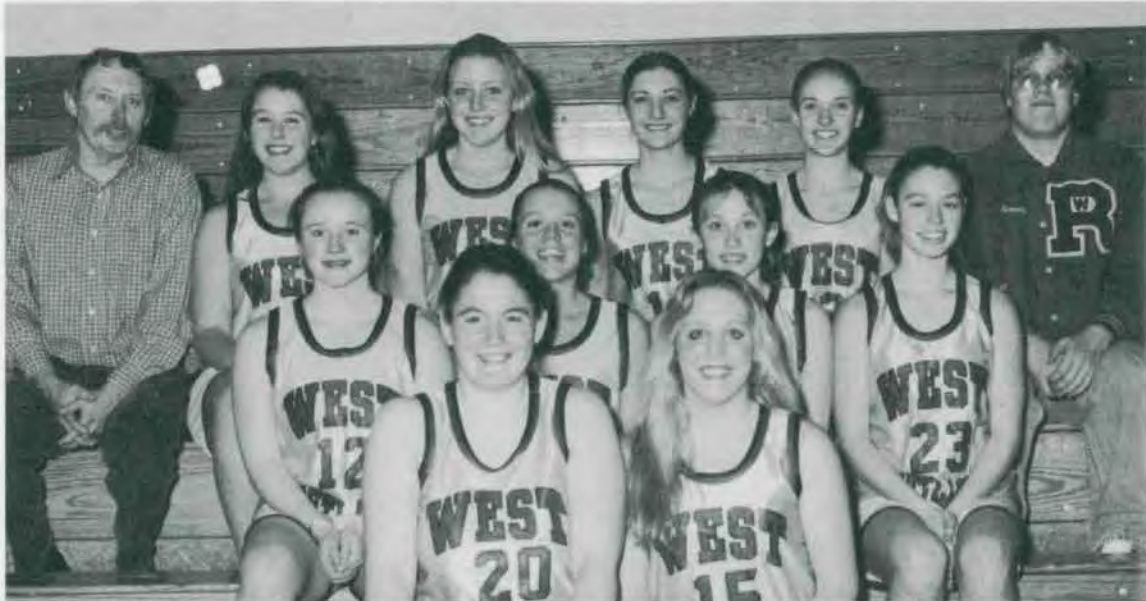

Don Dunchus getting up over the other team to win yet another tip off to spark the Golden Hordes explosive offense.

West Rutland crashes the boards hard to get another opportunity.

The Seniors of the Squad

To the Right: Left is of our dedicated coach, Kathy Czarnecki. Kathy has put in many hours this season to the squad between cheer camp, practices, and many hours of planning. Her great enthusiasm has kept everyone spirited and cheerful throughout the season.

Right: is the squad doing sideline cheers during an intense game.

Left: The squad says goodbye after a long week at cheer camp. They all had a great time!

Above: This year Ashley has overcome her fear of flying and can now go up with a beautiful smile. The bases have also improved and can easily throw up a stunt!

Left: Jessica Blanchard, team captain. Jessica is a senior and has been very supportive throughout the season. She has provided strong leadership for the squad. She will be missed next year!

The Championship

After completing the regular season at 12-4, West Rutland received a #4 seed going into the Division IV playoffs. Westside defeated #12 seeded Concord in a quarterfinal game, then travelled to play #1 seeded Chelsea. The team made the trip worth it by upsetting the Top team 6-3. The Championship was played at UVM's Centennial Field in Burlington,against the Whitcomb Hornets. Westside fell behind early but played hard to make it a good game. Although the final score of 10-3 was dissappointing. The game and the venue was a great experience.

The team is lined up on the first base line for the pre game playing of the national anthem.

Mike Senecal attempts to lay down a bunt while Nick Poljacik looks on from the on -deck circle.

Senior Jason Lincoln delivers a pitch to the plate late in the game.

Captains Jason Lincoln and Mike Wos meet with the Coaches and Umpires before the game.

HELPING THE COMMUNITY!

Left: The group poses before one of the many dances that has been put on to help promote anti-tobacco use in our community. Everyone in the high school attended to enjoy good music, free food, and dancing.

Right: Jessica Blanchard and Amanda Davis are holding up their state signs, as they represented VT in the National SADD Conference in CA. They also won the National Spirit Award for VT.

OVX & SADD

For the second year at our school Our Voices Xposed as been an active group in our community.

Left: Here the group stops to take a quick picture and has almost doubled in size over the past year!

Above: The adult advisor, Kathy Cunningham, has brought support and knowledge to the group. They thank her for her hard work and dedication to the group.

Drama

The drama group here at West Rutland has been successful for many years thanks to our directors, Susan and Melvin Loomis. The group was also joined this year by Justin Norton who came back after graduating to help direct the actors. The dedication of all the actors made it possible to put together many great performances. The winter play that the group performed was hilarious and riveting; a result of many hard hours of practice and perserverance. The spring play for festival was also as phenomenal, again because of everyone's commitment. The seniors would like to thank the Loomis's for a wonderful four years of laughter and excitement.

Left: Our drama group has many newcomers this year as a group of sophomores step up to join. The seniors will be missed.

Below: Jessica and Amanda practice lines for the Vermont Spring Festival. They both practiced for many hours after school to prepare.

Right: Mrs. Loomis poses for the camera. Although, she has been the director for several years, she loves to get in front of an audience herself.

Above: Jessica, Amanda, and Tyler perform in the play Commercials that was funny and a great success.

B. Sawyer, E.J. Moser,
Mrs. Fogg.

The Jazz Band is a small band that gets together and has a little fun. They played at the Pep Rally this year and last.

The Band Works Very Hard all Year. The hard work pays off when they get to play at parades or concerts. The band is lucky to have
Mrs. Fogg as a teacher.

GOOD LUCK

The Chorus & Band In Action

Above: The band performing "The Roaring 20's" at the Halloween Parade. They were great!

The chorus performing at the winter concert. Didn't they sound fantastic? GO WRS!

The select chorus treated the audience to many beautiful songs. DOING WELL!

The Band & Chorus has performed at the mall for about four years. In addition, the Chorus performs at the town hall every year. We work very hard all year and look forward to our concerts and parades. GREAT JOB TO MRS. BONSIGNORE & MRS. FOGG. You guys are great. GOOD LUCK!

The band playing at the winter concert really put everyone in a festive mood! GO WRS!

The Jazz Band livened up the program with their tunes. KEEP IT UP!

PROM

Can't Fight the Moonlight

Above: Throw your hands up! A group shot that shows everyone is having a great time near the end of the prom.

Top Right: Steve and Shannon make their appearance with style and grace.

Right: Jason and Jen are dancing the night away. Look at how much fun they are having!!

Below: Eric Trepanier scopes out the dance floor, while looking at the stunningly stylish ladies.

Left: The girls stop dancing for a minute, but never stop having fun. They decide to take a picture of their circle of friends.

Bottom Right: Kim, Amanda, Jess, Laura, Beth, and Jen are all having fun and are always ready for a picture with smiles on their faces.

CONGRATULATIONS

JUSTIN & JEREMY

Seven weeks early, you were a little small
But look at you now, our twins, so big and tall
You've each had your ups and downs
Your own smiles and frowns
You've made us laugh, made us cry
You've made us sad, even at times made us mad
How you've changed, how you've grown
Where, oh where has all the time flown?
You still have a ways to go
You still have a lot to learn
We've always been very proud
We'll tell that to any crowd

We know your future will prove to be very successful with whatever you choose to do. Good Luck

Love You Always,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations and Good
Luck on your Graduation
Love,
Grandma & Grandpa Brown

We are proud of all your Accomplishment. Best of Luck with your future endeavors.
Love,
Grandma & Grandpa Chapin

I can't believe its time for graduation already.
Time has flown by but, the love between us has grown. Ever since we were little you always protected me and I have protected
you. Eventhough I was your little sis it felt like I have watched you grow and become two wonderful young men.
Good Luck in you future. Put your minds to anything because I know you can achieve it.
I love you always

As you soar beyond your own imaginations, remember you take our love and admiration. For in you lies the future of your soul, in true happiness remember, you will always be whole. Much Love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Lindsay!!

We are all proud of you! We love you and wish you a successful future.

Ashley:

To our youngest. We are so proud of you. Although you've had many obstacles these last few years, you've shown your adult side by being the better person. Always remember in this world for every senseless person, you will meet at least 2 conscientious individuals. So keep that beautiful smile, that great personality, and the determination to be the best you can be. Congratulations, Love Dad, Mom, Randi, Tyler & Candace.

FOUR GENERATIONS OF WRHS GRADUATES!!
Guy Fish, Marcia Fish Smith, Loreen Smith Bowen and STEVEN GUY BOWEN!

Endurance, strength, pride and family is forever.

Congratulations and love, Mom, AJ and Sarah

Laura, you've been such a joy to us. Now we have to let you go to follow your dreams. You know that we will always be here for you. Love ya, TMFEAE.

Ashley,

You have worked and studied very hard, and you accomplished what you set out to do. Your Nana and Aunt Annie would be very proud, we are especially proud of you.

Love

Dad & Mom

Congratulations to you and all your classmates of 2003.

Laura, It's hard to express in words how I feel, but when you leave I'm not losing a sister, but a great friend, Love David.

Jessica, The time has finally come. You are all grown-up. You have made your Dad & I very proud. Enjoy life to the fullest. You know when you put your mind to something you can do it. We love you very much, Mom & Dad (and of course Casey & Molly B)

Andy has been a long hard road, but you made it. We knew you could do it. When you put your mind to it, you can do anything! We love you very much! Dad & Mom

To Andy always stand as tall as you are. Ha Ha! We love you forever. Grandpa & Grammy. LEARN ALL YOU CAN. ALWAYS BELIEVE IN YOURSELF. KEEP IN MAKING US PROUD OF YOU

Andy. Congratulations! I hope you succeed in life. I know you can. and remember know matter how big you are, you are still my little BRO. good luck love TJ

My little hawk of an Andy. I'm so proud of you for graduating. You did it! Good luck in the future and follow your dreams. God Bless you always. Love you Always Aunt Tammy Remember Forever Else Love's you

To Andy: The kid with the "golden heart" it has been a tough road but we knew you could do it. Congratulations and best wishes in the future!! love Dziadzia & Balcia

To the Class of 2003 - Good luck to all Jessica's friends & classmates - Follow you dreams, John & Judy

We are very proud of you Jason. May God Bless everything you do in the future. Best wishes to you and the Class of 2003.

Love Mom, Dad, Daniel, Sarah, Katie

We are so proud of you!

Congratulations. Much Love, Dad, Mom & Brian

You are the sunshine of time,
Poetry of life
The strength of your future
Comes from within.
Many doors are going to open for you to come in
Your roots are strong, solid like a rock
The world is for you. It awaits
For your knock.

Brendan

You have repeatedly demonstrated your trustworthiness and sense of responsibility. I have needed to depend on you and you have never disappointed me.

I couldn't have done it without you.

I'm proud to call you my son.

Love Mom

P.S. I love you more.

Dana,

You made it!

We are all so proud that you hung in there even during the toughest challenges. Now you know you can be anything you want if you work hard enough. Dream big and soar with your dreams.

We love you.

Mom, Dad, Brian & Sarah
